

Dana Jordan

February 8, 1965 - November 22, 2025

DANA DALLYNN JORDAN was born February 8, 1965 to Harry Howard and the late Carolyn Jordan in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on November 22, 2025.

Dana was educated through the Baltimore City school system. Throughout her life she worked various jobs but due to her health issues she could no longer work but even with her health issues she still managed to take care of her mom until she passed. Later in life Dana gave her life to Christ and attended church inside Gavan's Manor where she resided. Dana was full of life, energy and positivity, lifting others up every chance she could. She never hesitated to help others and always made time for family and friends.

Some of her favorite pastimes were listening to country music, watching westerns and shopping with Addy. Dana loved her sons, grandchildren, nieces and nephews dearly and was a faithful sister to her siblings. She also loved and cared for her furry nephew Trojan, whom everybody thought was hers.

Those who miss her and will cherish her memory: her sons, Anthony Alston, and Kai Venable; grandchildren, Aniya, Anthony, Tiyon, Dilan, Marley, Wynter, and Essence; one great-grandson, Greyson on the way; her father, Harry Howard; sister, Addy Boston; brother, Andre Jordan; nephews, Ahmad, and Aidyn; close cousins who were raised like siblings,

Bruce Taylor, Deborah Smith, William Taylor, Rod Taylor and LuDina Beckwith; and a host of other loving relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her mother Carolyn Jordan, her aunt Clara Lee and niece Brionna.
