

Dana Estella Morris

October 31, 1970 - February 22, 2011

DANA ESTELLA MORRIS, the daughter of Adell Fitchett Morris Sutton and the late Otis Morris, was born on October 30, 1970 in Baltimore, Maryland. The Lord called Dana home at 9:30 p.m. on Tuesday, February 22, 2011. She transitioned from this life holding her sister and mother's hands, with her father, brother, family and friends surrounding her.

Dana accepted Christ at an early age and attended several churches in the Baltimore and Pikesville area.

Dana graduated from Northern High School and started her career at the BWI-Marriott in guest services. She later accepted a position with Provident Bank as a cashier and quickly progressed to management. Dana then attended Sojourner-Douglass College and became a Certified Day Care Provider. Fulfilling her dream and with great determination, she opened the Tots and Blocks Learning Center in September of 2003 in Baltimore City. She became a highly respected business women, providing education and loving care for up to forty-five years until her passing.

Dana's energy, fortitude and heart of gold inspired and touched the lives of everyone she met. She left us wondering what she might have done next... she will be sorely missed.

Dana's legacy lives on through her girls: Jazmen Davis and Jenelle Fields, parents, Alfred and Adell Sutton; grandmother, Emma Sutton; brother, Louis Morris, Sr. (Lanelle, friend); sisters Angela Morris, Sharon Lampkin and Meshia Sutton (Preston); aunts and uncles, Robert and Betty Fitchett Frank and Angelette Sutherlin, James and Dorothy Fitchett, Bernard and Peggy Fitchett, Alice Cook, Shirley Cook, Robert and Mary Scott (Ohio), Helena Butler, Sam Cook, Christina Cook, John and Faye Cook, Theresa Wachuku, Glenn and Carolyn Dorsey; nieces and nephews, Brandee Blackwell, Louis Morris, Jr. Robert Blackwell and Calvin Blackwell; great-nieces, Jayla Blackwell and Brook Jones; life-long friend, David Fields; adopted daughter, Aisha Thomas; a host of countless cousins, extended family members, day care staff and friends.

“ Thank God...

This young woman has fought an incredible battle to live for a very long time. Her strength was amazing, and I can truly testify that she never gave in. I worked with Dana just a short time @ Provident Bank in the ACH Dept. in Woodlawn, MD. Those days were filled with a lot of laughter and good eating!!!! Our greeting to each other was, "pick up the phone girl", and then in that high pitched voice she would say "HI TANYA!!!" Her children, parents and siblings and even her nephew she often conversated to me about. She loved her family soooo much, There have been so many loving family members and friends that supported her when help was needed. All of her friends are very proud of what she accomplished during her short tenure here with us. I will miss our Saturday morning phone calls. REST MY DEAR FRIEND.... LOVE YOU ALWAYS.... Tanya...
