“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Almighty God remembers such ones who are full of love and generosity. Notice this promise at Daniel 12:2- "Many, many people of the earth that are dead and buried will wake up. Some of them will wake up to have life forever." Many will wake up to a paradise earth in which there will be no more sorrow,sickness,death or pain. (Isaiah 33:24, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) May these divinely inspired promises give you peace and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ May you find peace and comfort in the resurrection promise from our heavenly father. Your loved one sounded like a wonderful person. She reminded me of myself. I loved the pet names she had for grand kids, chocolate drops. I too have cute names for my grand kids, so I can identify with that. One day you will see her again, and she'll be able to hold those sweet little grand kids in her arms again, and she'll never have to leave them ever again. May God give you comfort and peace as you await that glorious day. Take care.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor our cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threatened by death because it is Jehovah God's promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the loss of our loved ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God's promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. John 5:25, 28, 29. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
