“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Bradley's family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie-Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort from God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4; "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore.The former things have passed away." May God strengthen you. Sincerely, C. Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte Bain##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Christ Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ If only there were something that friends could say or do, some way they might express their thoughts and help to comfort you, and yet, perhaps, just knowing that there are those who care, will help at least in some small way to ease the loss you bear.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
