“ To the Gaines Family, please accept my sincerest condolences for the loss of Mr. Gaines. I know he was a lovely person. If I may, please allow me to offer a few scriptures from God's word the Bible. I hope you will find comfort in reading Revelation 21:3-5, in particular Revelation 21:4. There the Bible speaks of the enemy death being no more. The scripture goes on to say that neither mourning nor outcry will be, it speaks of these atrocities vanishing. Please also review John 5: 21, 28 and 29. I hope these scriptures bring the family a measure of hope directly from the Almighty Himself. Sincerely, VHughes##imported-begin##VHughes##imported-end##

“ I offer my deepest sympathy for the loss of your family member, Daniel Gains. I am offering you scriptural encouragement. Rev21:4,5: "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.' And the One seated on the throne said: 'Look! I am making all things new.' Also, he says: 'Write, beause these words are faithful and true.'""##imported-begin##nunnally##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Mr. Gaines, Eventhoug your relative and friend passed away two years ago the Bible promises a time when you can see him again. Please take time and read John 5:28,29 where it says "all those in memorial tombs will come out". You can definitely find the comfort you need in the Bible##imported-begin##D. Samuel##imported-end##
