“ Dear Pop Pop,

Today we say goodbye to you in the physical form. There is no doubt in my mind that you are in heaven with the Lord. You have always been a kind, loving, fun and generous person. I cherish childhood memories of you sharing your bag of peanuts, me and Rae running upstairs to watch Rusty run around the living room table when you came home from work and being at the barbershop. Most importantly you always let the grandkids be KIDS. I'm glad we became closer since I moved back to Maryland. I'm gonna miss my pop up visits after work, calling you on my way home from work to make sure you checked your blood sugar, and spending Thanksgiving and Christmas with you. Knowing what I know now makes me realize how strong you were. I never once seen you angry, afraid or sad. Even though I have had a hard coping with it; I thank God for allowing us to be with you in your last hour of life here. Your presence here on earth is deeply missed and going to your house will never be the same. Watch over all of us.

Love,
Cherish❤️

“ *The Harris Family..My Family:
There is a time for tears. When your heart is too full of sorrow, they begin to flow as naturally as rain from heaven. Tears honor our loved ones, there is a sacredness about them.
I don't have any words that will take away the sorrow, but I want you to know that I care!!*

*Sincere Condolences,

“ To the best stepfather you will be missed by all. My stepfather made sure we had it made coming up. When I was little I just knew we were in good hands with him being around, so humble and caring to our family. There were times when my father had to step in and he welcomed him in like a friend. His humble spirit will forever live on. I have never seen him raise his voice and if he did you really couldn't tell. He played a major role in my life and I am glad to have had him as my stepfather. Take flight and rest easy on your journey you have done you job and did it with grace and respect. Your spirit will always be a part of my life. RIH! ❤️❤️😭🙏😊

*We cannot say and We will not say
That Pop is dead, He is just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of hand
He has wandered into an unknown land;
And left us dreaming how very fair*

*His needs must be, since he lingers there.
From the old-time step and the glad return
Think of our Pop faring on, as dear.
In the love of there, as the love of here
Think of him still the same way, I say;
He is not dead he's just resting his body.
We all have so many great memories of you.
And we will see you again Pop/Pop Pop
Rest your body, Rest your soul.*

*From, Your
Step daughter Vanessa
Grands Shannon, Shanika, Leo, And William
A host of great grands and great grands- (to many to count)
and 2 son- laws Matt and Rory*

We love you with everything we have in our heart, never forgotten, Pop not ever.

“ We miss you, Pop Pop! I will say my most favorite memory is of you 'rolling' John John into his Dad's arms. Lol (insider) You never let me forget my reaction to it!! 🤔 I will miss you at our events and holidays. I know you're in a better place and I can only be happy for that.

Love,

Cherish, John and John John❤️
