

Daniel Miller

March 2, 1945 - December 3, 2010

After battling for months against sickness and suffering, DANIEL LEE MILLER, son of Ruth E. Gethers and the late Jesse Miller, quietly passed away from an earthly existence into the Lord's arms.

Daniel, affectionately known as Danny Boy, was born in Rock Hill, South Carolina on March 2, 1945. Daniel was the eldest of two brothers and graduated from Rock Hill High School in South Carolina in 1968.

Daniel was wed in Holy Matrimony to Anetta Bush on January 17, 1965, as they shared marriage for twenty-three years and lovingly produced two children, Dennis Charles Miller and Coretta Danielle Miller.

Daniel worked for the National Shirt Shop for ten years. Daniel was a family man, and a great man of compassion and strength. He was tough and courageous and also someone who expressed good sense of humor and was loved greatly by many. Daniel loved being in fellowship at family gatherings. Daniel loved his children.

Daniel loved eating and would not say a word while eating, but his special love was gospel music and quartet singing. Daniel loved church and later on in his life he joined Union Baptist Church in Rock Hill, South Carolina before departing to live in Baltimore, Maryland in 1985.

Daniel leaves his mother, Mrs. Ruth Gethers; his son, Dennis Miller and daughter, Coretta Miller; his grandson, James Quincy Miller; his five stepbrothers and sisters, Thomas, Bobby, Griffin, Mary and Debbie; and a host of nephews and nieces.
