

Daniel Rogers

April 27, 1936 - October 11, 2016

DANIEL ROGERS, son of the late Leroy Alfonzo Rogers, Sr. and Laura Ann Rogers, was born on April 27, 1936, in South Boston, Virginia. He was the eldest of nine children. He departed this life on October 11, 2016, after a lengthy illness.

Daniel was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He attended church regularly with his parents and was baptized at an early age in South Boston.

During his younger years, Dan worked as an Oyster Shucker and a Trained Jewelry Appraiser. He was also employed at The Fish Cannery and The Oriole Cafeteria in Baltimore, Maryland. His hobbies included riding and fixing bikes and refinishing furniture.

In 1984, Dan began dating Mary Jacobs, who became his best friend and life partner. For the next 32 years, they enjoyed life and made countless memories. Together, they operated their famous snowball stand from the front porch of their Towanda Avenue home along with their neighborhood fish, vegetable and fruit truck. Affectionately known to many as Danny, he was an unforgettable staple in the Park Heights Community.

Family was Dan's greatest joy! He looked forward to enjoying them at family gatherings. Dan loved cooking and baking, and was always playful and entertaining. Wherever he went, he carried a special, positive energy.

Preceded in death by his parents and two sisters, Bessie Lee Burger and Ginger Chester, Daniel leaves to mourn: his devoted companion, Mary; three siblings, Leroy Rogers, Jr. (Patricia), Ann Thomas, and Gerald Rogers (Rosalind); one uncle, James Bailey; nine nieces, six nephews, several great-nieces and -nephews, the Jacobs family, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My heartfelt condolence to the family. To loose a loved one is never easy, however the MOST HIGH GOD has given an assured promise and hope concerning death. (Isaiah 25:8) May you too find comfort in reading GOD's words, especially during this difficult time.(Psalms 55:22)
