

Danita L. Hines

February 24, 1955 - August 2, 2015

Danita L. Hines, daughter of the late William H. Matthews and Gloria Darby Herbert was born on February 24, 1955. She entered into her eternal rest on August 2, 2015 after a short but aggressive battle with cancer. In spite of Danita's illness she remained positive.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon her graduation from Northwestern High School, she became employed with the State of Maryland, earning her way to become a supervisor for the Department of Assessment and Taxation for twenty years, after deciding to change her career, she became employed with Social Security Administration until her illness prevented her from working.

"Nita", as she was affectionately called by family and friends, was also preceded in death by her stepfather, James E. Herbert and her brothers, Glenn A. Matthews, Marc A. Herbert.

She leaves to cherish her memory: sisters, Michelle W. Herbert and Marcia A. Herbert; her nieces, Shanae and Morgan; nephews, Eric, Andre, Kenny, Reginald, Jabre; several great-nieces and nephews; aunts, Deanna Halley and Sylvia Booth; and a host of relatives and friends who shared an abundance of love for Danita.

“ To the family of Danita Hines. My condolences to you. I can say I have felt the pain in your hearts and how it feels to lose the ones so dear and precious especially, mother, daughter and sister and dear friend. God needed another beautiful Angel in Heaven. The Bible provides us with comfort as the words at Isaiah 25:8 show that soon God will swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces. May those words bring you a measure of comfort in this time of sorrow. God loves you and so do I.

Danita would travel to Foxwoods Ct. with us for days and enjoyed herself as we enjoyed having her. She will truly be missed. May Danita, Rest in Paradise (R.I.P.)

“ Danita will be missed by her Social Security Family as well. Her laugh, her smile, the way she rocked when her knee's bothered her, the way she would get excited when we had parties at work. I will never forget the time when the other members of the (Pow Wow crew), convinced Danita to go out after work, we had such a wonderful time that it makes me happy just to think about it. When the four of us would exchange gifts at Christmas time, will forever be etched in our hearts. Our last trip together was in Atlantic City, where our co-worker Larry Harp joined us , and the two of them lost the rest of us, when we got to the bus, Danita said " Where y'all been". everybody started to laugh, and Danita said it's not funny, Carolyn you knew what you were doing, leaving us because me and Larry can't walk as much as the rest of you, and than she started to laugh too. When we came back to work she told everybody. Rest in Peace our work sister. We will never forget you.
Love,
Linda, Carolyn, and Alice
