

Danyell Fenner

April 3, 1985 - June 6, 2022

Danyell was a graduate of Lake Clifton Eastern High School. Danyell had a very loving and caring nature about her. After High school, she continued her education in the medical field and became a certified GNA/CNA as well as a Certified Med Tech.

Once she landed her first Job in her field of choice you couldn't tell Danyell nothing! She became the richest slickest female in Baltimore City. Formally known as Yezzy!! Danyell had a confidence about her that was out of this world. We loved and admired that the most about her.

Danyell was fun, outgoing, and flashy. She enjoyed driving fast cars. Hanging out with the guys, cooking for her family, and attending family and friend's events.

As the years passed Danyell, experienced the worst heartbreak of her life. The sudden loss of her mother "Ms. Dotsy Richardson". took an extreme toll on her. Danyell became very depressed, and life began to take a different turn for her.

She found joy in caring for her nephew Kash and Goddaughter Demi. They were the highlight of her life magnet, all the kids loved her.

Danyell will be deeply missed. She leaves to cherish her beautiful memories: Brother Dominic Cooper, Sister Tamia McCullough, Grandmother Nancy

Murray (Willie Murray), Nephew Damari Cooper, God daughter Demi Brown, and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and friends.
