“ My condolences to all of Daonise's family. I worked with her in the cataloging area at the Library of Virginia. Daonise could always cheer me up with her comments and quips. She was so dependable and such a good worker; helping me with the bindery and whatever else came up. And she loved to pop that bubble wrap! Every now and again you'd hear that poppoppop coming from her cubicle. I'll always cherish those good times we shared working together.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences to your family during this difficult time. Please take comfort from these scriptures that the God of all comfort provides a real hope of being reunited with your loved one.-John 5:28, 29; 1 Corinthians 15:26.

My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the family of Ms. Rippy. Death is so hard and unimaginable. But we can find comfort in Gods word the bible. At Revelation 21:3,4 we are told that there will be a time when death will be no more, along with sickness. I hope scriptures such as this brings you some comfort in your time of bereavement.
