

Darius Royster

July 17, 1998 - July 3, 2021

The Spirit of an Angel

Darius Royster, departed this life on July 3, 2021 at the age of 22. He was born a twin on July 17, 1988 to Linwood Royster and Letitia Royster. Darius was educated in Richmond and Chesterfield County Public Schools. He was proud graduate of Meadowbrook High School. He was a proud and dedicated father. Darius was a hard worker who enjoyed life and loved spending time with his family.

He had an interest for the art for music. He enjoyed making music videos and recording in the studio with his siblings and friends. Our little Darius was brave, loyal, responsible, loving, respectful, and honorable. Darius's passion for family was undeniably strong. He wanted to excel at enormous heights, but not without bringing someone along. He was very competitive and put forth his best effort at whatever endeavors he took on. Darius had a direct response to most situations with strength and courage. The Spirit of an Angel, Our Little Man, We Love You.

Left to cherish and honor his memory are his precious daughter, J'Nya Burton; his parents, Linwood and Letitia Royster; siblings, Linwood Jr., Diamond, Lamar, Hakeem and Jewel Royster; grandparents, George and Silveria Brown; Betty Royster. seven nieces and nephews; one aunt; four uncles and host of other relatives and many friends.
