“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 which assures us of the hope that those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family of Darlene. One day soon many will be ressurected back to life from the grave, because Daniel 12,2 tells us: "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." This sickness and death we go through was never a part of God's purpose for us, so he has given his son Jesus all authority to ressurect the dead. John 5:25-29 One day this world will once again be a paradise just like God intended from the beginning, and all the meek ones will inherit this peaceful new world. Psalm 37:10,11 makes this wonderful promise: "And just a little while longer and the wicked one will be no more, and you will certainly give attention to his place and he will not be. "But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." One day Darlene and others who have died will gain everlasting life in that peaceful new world, and if we have a true faith we will be able to live eternally with them. May you be comforted by this wonderful hope. 2nd Peter3:13##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
