

Darlene K. Cooper

November 17, 1954 - April 10, 2019

DARLENE KIM COOPER, born on November 17, 1954, peacefully joined her parents Leonard and Marlene Cooper on April 10, 2019.

Darlene received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System and attended Northwestern High School and later attended Community College of Baltimore City.

As an advocate for the elderly, homeless and those seeking help from drug addiction, Darlene often provided a listening ear, a place to rest or a plate of food to those that needed her guidance. She enjoyed working with her Mom, 'Dimples', as a caseworker at The Salvation Army for Battered Women.

As Darlene's health started to slow her down, she became a caregiver for a host of beautiful children she lovingly cared for as if they were her "grandchildren". She was affectionately known as "Doll", "Coop", and "Ms. D" throughout the neighborhood where everyone knew that distinctive friendly greeting in only the voice that Darlene had saying "Heeyyy"! Darlene and her girls loved to have fun and are known for their comedy antics and prank phone calls especially the infamous "Happy New Year's" phone calls.

Darlene leaves to mourn: her daughters, Nichelle and Bridgette Williams; brother, Michael Cooper; sister, Donna Copper Singfield (Charles); niece and nephew, Darienne and Derrick Singfield; many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends who loved her dearly.

“ Nichelle, I am deeply sorry for your loss. And as I have already shared with you, while I did not interact with your mother often, I know who she is because of who you and Bridgette are. The both of you of two of the kindest, loyal, and most sincere women I know and I hold you both close to my heart. Your mother will forever be in you, and for her I am grateful. May the Lord continue to be with you during this time. Know that you are loved by so many here on Earth and her spirit give you the comfort you need. Love you both.
