“ We were always very close growing up. First, I was your cousin, then I became your sister and lastly I was your friend. I remember that I was the chosen one to be your playmate when we were kids. You were 6 and I was 12. I spent my summers every year with you on Bentalou St. Because you are an only child I was assigned to be company for you. This lasted for years until you moved to Dennison St. The memories of these early years will always be remembered fondly and they will live in my heart ❤️ forever. Rest in Heaven my sister❤️
