

Darlene E. Hunter

July 20, 1949 - April 10, 2017

DARLENE ELIZABETH HUNTER, daughter of the Shirley Smith and the late Samuel Smith Sr., was born July 20, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on April 10, 2017.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, but graduated from Glen Burnie High School. Darlene later met and married Ronald Hunter Sr. and from this union three children were born Denise, Cindy, and Ronald Jr.

She was one of the first groups that took the key punch training that helped Darlene become employed with the State of Maryland for over thirty-five years and at Coppin State College from 1973 to 1981. She later transferred to Morgan State University and worked as an Administrative Assistant in various offices. Darlene retired from Morgan State in 2008 after twenty-seven years of service. Darlene became a Jehovah's Witness in 1986 where she could use her love for other people to teach them about God.

Darlene had numerous gifts and talents she shared with any and everyone who wanted to learn. She would always have an annual three days of baking cookies with her children, three children, siblings, and anyone else who wanted to learn how to make cookies from scratch. Darlene was a do it yourself kind of woman and there was no task too big or too small that she wouldn't do. She was successful in completing every task. Darlene made friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn: two children: Cindy Gray and Ronald (Kapriel) Hunter; daughter whom followed her in death, Denise Cook; mother, Shirley Smith; two sisters, Charlene Generette-Blackwell (Archer) and Debrah Haste-Williams; three brothers, Daniel (Marsha), George and Samuel Jr.; eleven grandchildren, Candace, Anthony, Danielle, Kevin, Dajai, Devinah, Keon, Dejon, Bria, Kamille, Mikah; three great-grandchildren, Kaylin, Kaleb and Sydney-Adriana; nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
