Obituary

Darlene Beatrice Lipscomb

Her trumpet sounded, white Lilies of the Valley perked up, glistening to light a path in the Green Pasture, a Host of Angels sang Hallelujah. The gates of Heaven peeled opened greeting Servant of the Great I AM. Darlene Lipscomb of Richmond, Virginia transitioned from the physical plane to the spiritual realm, Wednesday, July 12, 2017.

Darlene Beatrice Lipscomb was born on December 6, 1956 in Richmond, Va. to Ella Gertrude Lipscomb and the late John Deamus Lipscomb. Darlene loved God and joined Trinity Baptist Church at an early age. She received her education at Carver Elementary School and graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in 1975. Darlene received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education from Norfolk State College now Norfolk State University in 1980. She remained a lifelong Spartan.

She began teaching the young impressionable kindergarteners at the same school she began her education. Her dedication for teaching followed her in the summer as a summer camp coordinator for Henrico County Recreation and Parks. Darlene retired from Richmond Public Schools. She was a member of AARP Chapter 390 and Battery Park Seniors organization.

Darlene loved traveling, cooking and eating. With her sweet smile and laughter, she would say, "What time are we leaving and what will we need for snacks?" She enjoyed the vacation trips with her Norfolk State sisters; the family reunion parties, and the holidays with family and friends. But most of all, Darlene enjoyed life.

Darlene was predeceased by her father, John D. Lipscomb, two doting grandmothers, Beatrice Evans and Ruth Harris affectionately called "Grandma Bea" and "GiGi", respectively.

Darlene leaves to cherish her fond memories, her devoted mother, Ella Lipscomb; three caring sisters, Mary White (Dewey) , Cheryl Truman (Spencer) and Richelle Belvin (Michael); niece Alexis Truman; two nephews Aaron Cunningham and Evan Truman; a godson Jabari B. Craddock, a host of loving cousins, other relatives and friends.

And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in paradise.

“ I am a "Spartan" from NSU, I lived in Twin Towers and attended education classes with Darlene. She had an incredible smile and could always brighten your day. I have crossed her path at educational conferences and events in Richmond. Darlene was a quiet angel among us who went home too soon. We will miss her but she is now in sweet peace.

Darlene and I went to TJ together both graduating the same year. We then went on to become "buddies" at NSU. Darlene and I spent many moments together at Norfolk State. She would often stop by my dorm room to bounce ideas around on projects or assignments. We have some mutual friends, so, we would see one another every now and then through the years. She was my riding partner on weekend home visits from NSU and just a beautiful, kind, sweet individual. She was always smiling, laughing and pleasant. I am so sorry for your loss Lipscomb family. My prayer is that God will give you His blessed peace and comfort you during this difficult time. We loved her but God loved her best. She will truly be missed.

“ *To the Lipscomb Family
I was so saddened to read of Darlene's departure. We had been roommates in Norfolk State's Twin Towers. I remember her as quiet and easy going. I pray the God of consolation will comfort your hearts.*
