

Darlene M. Cato

April 2, 1959 - April 12, 2004

Darlene Michelle Cato, daughter of Andrew J. and Alice V. Cato, was born on April 2, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. She suddenly departed this life on the morning of April 12, 2004. Darlene accepted Christ at an early age and was confirmed and baptized at St. John's Lutheran Church in 1973. She attended the Baltimore City Schools, graduating from Western Senior High School in June 1977. Darlene matriculated to Baltimore City Community College for one year and later earned a certificate in Computer Programming. She briefly worked for the Baltimore City Public School System followed by her employment with the United States Postal Service from November 1985 until her passing. Darlene made numerous friends during her employment; including Linda, who preceded her in death, Jean, Carolyn, Thelma, Tandy, Connie and Brown. They will forever remain in the hearts and minds of her family and of her fiancé, Ronald Lee. Darlene was also a spectacular "Avon Lady". Darlene and Ron met in 1986. She did everything in a "top of the line" way. Darlene enjoyed plays, shopping, sports, cookouts, making her delicious potato salad and the shows, Trading Spaces and Real World. She routinely engaged in many of these activities with her sister, Donna and her niece, Taryn. Darlene was greatly inspired by the ministry of Bishop T.D. Jakes. She will always be loved by her family, including extended family members, Kathy Karen, Reginol, Kevin, Cedric, their children and her beautiful Bishan, Rocky. “ When I worked with Donna at Cell one she would always talk about her family and when I meet Darlene during that time Darlene really stood out. She was a great person and I really wish I knew how much she loved trading Spaces, so do I. Probably because the show is really about helping people and she seem like that kind of person. I will keep the family in my prayers.##imported-begin##WAYne Peterson##imported-end##
