Lene, as she was affectionately called received her GED and her daycare license in Baltimore, MD. She was also employed at Motor Vehicle Administration.

Darlene was one of the most loving and funniest individuals to be known. She holds a special place in our hearts as a daughter, mother, aunt, sister and wife.

Darlene love to laugh & party to her favorite artist Mary J. Blige and her favorite song Slow Motion. She also loved to cook her favorite dish macaroni n cheese.

Although her time has come we will cherish those moments of laughter and love.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her parents Artines and Kenny; Her sisters, Carolyn, Anne, Angie Mona and Liza. Her four children, Shawn, Carlos, Senchua and Imir; Her Grandchild Shawn the 3rd. her heart. As Darlene would always say, let continue "Stepping out on Faith"
