“ My deepest sympathy goes out to all and especially our 2 beautiful children. Just know that deep down Darnell was a loving, caring man who I believe his love for God and his family never left his heart. I pray that he is with his Mom Katie baby and she and God are setting him staight. No more hurt or pain. Just singing, dancing and laughter which I remember the most.##imported-begin##Darlene##imported-end##

“ My brother played the acordian and had a do-whop group with a guy named Slim singing bass. They only proformed in our livingroom while I sat on the chair sucking my thumb. I remember my brother carrying me on his shoulders while he danced. He was a fun person to be around most of the time. The plastic baseball bat was one of his favorites and he would chaste my sister and I around the house while we screamed and fell on the floor with laughter as he gently tagged us. His later life was not a pretty picture and I pray that he has finally found peace. An Irish Prayer for the Living Always remember to forget the things that made you sad. But never forget to remember the things that made you glad. Always remember to forget the friends that proved untrue. But never forget to remember those that have stuck by you. Always remember to forget the troubles that passed away. But never forget to remember the blessings that come each day - Author unknown.###imported-begin##Lucinda###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Much comfort can be found in the Bible. Acts 24:15 lovingly assures us: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and hope each time you read this verse from your bible.###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##
