“ I send my condolences to the entire family. There is also a hope that is found in the Bible that we can take comfort from. Acts 24:15 states that we can "have a hope towards God...that there is going to be a resurrection". So there is a hope when our loved ones pass. May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##

“ My condolences on your loss. Jesus likened death to a sleeplike condition at John 5:28,29 when he said: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out".##imported-begin##D. Spann##imported-end##

“ Death is so very hard to bear especially when one is so young. To the parents and family I can feel your pain because I too lost my son at an early age. What comforts me is the sure hope of the resurrection. God hates death. He views it as an enemy to mankind. That's why he promises at 1stCorinthians 15:26, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Nothing can bring your son back at present, but the resurrection is a sure hope that the bible indicates will take place in the near future. Soon no more tears of pain, but only tears of joy when we see our loved ones again. Rev21:3,4 promises that Jehovah will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. Please take comfort in God's sure promises.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so bad when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am compelled by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
