

Darrell Clay Brooks

April 29, 1963 - September 15, 2011

DARRELL CLAY BROOKS, son of Gerald and Sylvia Brooks, grandson of the late John and Susie Jones, Jerome A. Brooks and Gloria Beaker and Harry Beaker, went home to be with God on September 15, 2011 after a brief illness.

Darrell, known to everyone as "Clay" was born on April 29, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was educated in the Baltimore Public School System, and upon graduation he entered the United States Military service. He was honorably discharged from the military after serving three years. After his military service, he worked for the Department of Correction.

In 2005, he met and married the former Angela Wright.

His personality, his big smile, his hearty laughter, his kindness and love of animals, endeared him to everyone who met him. He was blessed with the gift of artistry. Some of his artwork remain on display in areas throughout the city and because of his vision, he created and patented a children's toy.

He leaves to mourn: his wife Angela W. Brooks; his mother and father, two brothers, Gerald "Jay" (his twin) and Larry; his daughter daughters, Tinesha and Jewel; and his stepdaughter, Dionne, his aunt, Gloria Butler, Angela and Cathy Brooks, his uncle, Mark, Jerome, Jeffrey, Corky, Derek and Scott; a host of other relatives, family and friends.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I wanted to give your family some comfort. I'm so sorry for your loss!! Do you know that there is hope for your dead loved one? Well, the Bible makes a promise: “Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up.” The Bible also says: “The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.”—Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29. Can this be possible you may ask? Yes, Almighty God Jehovah has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. His Son, Jesus Christ himself said: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15. If you are interested in learning more, any one of Jehovah's Witnesses will be happy to help you with a free home Bible study. Again I'm so sorry for your loss!!

“ Time is too slow for those who wait, Too swift for those who fear, Too long for those who grieve, Too short for those who rejoice, But, for those who love – Time is eternity. We will miss you Clay - Your sister-in-law Sonja and your nephews - Malcolm and Isaiah.
