

Darrell DeShawn Mitchell

October 13, 1986 - May 31, 2003

Darrell Deshawn Mitchell, son of Connie and the late Ronald E. Mitchell, Sr., was born on October 13, 1986 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Darrell was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He loved basketball, being a friend, playing music and playing video games. At age 14 he volunteered his service to the Maryland Poison Control Center at the University of Maryland and later became a part-time employee. He also volunteered his time to help his mother with community outreach programs, events, trips and mailing of the Ark Church Prison Ministry. Darrell was dedicated back to God at the Ark Church where he became a member of the Junior Ushers. He will be remembered for his sweet, gentle smile, meek personality and respectful spirit. Darrell leaves to mourn: his devoted and loving mother, Connie O. Mitchell; sister, Terrell Padgett; brother, Ronald E. Mitchell, Jr.; brother-in-law, Edward Padgett; nephew, Ronald E. Mitchell II; six aunts, Shirley Mitchell, Jeanne Tilghman, Teresa Durant, Joan Tilghman, Paula Mitchell and LeVerne Tilghman; five uncles, James Tilghman, Michael Tilghman, Rev. Carl Tilghman, Allen Durant, and Glen Mitchell; numerous cousins, grand and great aunts and uncles; and special friends, to name a few - Clifford Farmer, Toni and Niesha Crosby, and Anthony "Tony" Austin.

“ Durell is no longer bothered by this world's troubles. The passing of a loved one is always a hard thing to bear, but Jehovah God gave us a hope of seeing them again. (Please read ACTS 24:15 and REVELATION 21:4) May this bring comfort to all holding to that hope. As far away as I am, I will truly will miss him.##imported-begin##James Tilghman##imported-end##
