

Darrell S. King

January 21, 1983 - January 13, 2002

Darrell Shawn King, son of Diane Chavis and Keith King was born on December 21, 1983 in Baltimore, MD. He departed this life on January 13, 2002 after being fatally shot. Darrell was in the 12th grade at Fairmount High and also attended night classes. He enjoyed sports. He played football, basketball and baseball. While participating in these sports he won numerous trophies especially in football his favorite sport. At an early age he learned about God when he attended Faith Tabernacle with his family. He was very outgoing and he had a very kind heart that would allow him to help everyone. Darrell was a well-liked person. He had so many friends. He was never any trouble as a child. He was always very happy. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Diane Chavis; father, Keith King; his best friend and closet sister, Dikeshia King; his sister, Precious Hicks; step-father, James Hicks; grandparents, Willie and Delores Birch; grandmother Helen King; uncles, Willie Birch, Jr., Gary Birch, Terrell Birch, Melvin King and Kevin King; aunt, Annette Birch, and a host of relatives, cousins, and friends, also a very devoted girlfriend, Tamia Gardener and best friend Andre Mosby. We will always love him and forever miss him. TO MY FIRST BORN I remember the first time you were born; you were a funny little boy, always making faces while taking pictures. Acting silly all the time. Now I look at you and you have turned out to be a very handsome young man that I can be proud of, but don't forget you are not a man yet. I hope that you will always do the right thing and just know that you and your sisters will always be the love of my life. I live for you and you will always be in my heart. You have been called home to be with our Father, the King of Kings. He has called you home for better things, so just remember to stay sweet and I will always miss you. Lovingly submitted, Mommy

“ May today there be peace within you. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of your faith. May you use those gifts that you have received, and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content knowing you are a child of God. Peace to your family.###imported-begin###Annette Lewis & Family###imported-end###
