

Darrell T. Belton

December 31, 1946 - October 2, 2007

“Wait on the Lord. Be of good courage and He shall strengthen thine heart. Wait I say on the Lord.” On Tuesday evening, October 2, 2007 God sent his angels to Stella Maris Hospice. It was time for DARRELL TYRONE BELTON to go to his eternal home. He was the fourth child born to Milton and Bertha Mae Belton on December 31, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. Darrell grew up on the west side of Baltimore. He was a graduate of Carver Vocational High School and was attending Morgan State University when drafted into the United States Marines. Darrell completed his Vietnam Tour and received an Honorable discharge. He returned to college to complete his undergraduate studies. He proceeded to graduate from the University of Maryland Baltimore County with a Political Science degree. While attending college he met his wife, Gloria whom he often stated was his soul mate. Within their wonderful union of thirty-six years they loved, nurtured and raised two sons. Darrell was an active member of the Veteran Foreign Wars Lodge, Post#28. He would tell his wife, “don’t worry about it Glori, I got this!” He lived his life fully with no regrets and let it be known to his family that he had a relationship with God. Darrell will be greatly missed, but will live forever within our hearts. Those left to share his love memories and legacy includes: his wife, Gloria Geneva Belton; three sons, Brian Troy Madison, Darrell T. Belton, Jr., Darius Belton; mother-in-law, Naomi L. Madison; two daughters-in-law, Shakira Belton and Shemice Madison; two sisters, Frances Belton and Burnettia C. Young; four sisters-in-law, Mary Thomas, Bridgette Damon, Daphne Willis and Minnie

Madison; three brothers-in-law, Rudolph R. Madison, Glenn Madison and James Willis Jr.; five grandchildren, Brandon Troy Madison, Brittany Taylor Madison, Jalen McNeely, Darius Belton, Jr. and Mekhi Belton; thirteen nieces, six nephews, fifteen great-nieces, ten great-nephews, two great-great-nieces, three great-great-nephews; and a host of other friends and relatives. Darrell had a long, endearing and true friend who remained at his side until his life ended, his dog, Nala.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Over the years with many tragic events my husband and I receive much comfort and hope from the loving promises found in the Bible. One such comforting verse is Acts 24:15- "There is going to be a resurrection." The Bible gives much hope of our dead loved ones returning life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Isaiah 65:17, 2 Peter 3:13) May you receive much solace and strength as you think about these loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ May I send my condolences to you all, the family and friends. Lossing a dear loved breaks the circl of life for all. May it help to know that others cares and know the feeling and pain of death. Our heavenly father will in the future put an end to all our suffering as the bible promises us at Ps.145:16 and life will be just as our creator purpose in the beginning. May the great love Jehovah has for you all help to make life better in life journey.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
