

Darryl E. Duppins

December 4, 1981 - June 11, 2006

DARRYL EDWARD DUPPINS was born to Mary and Charles Duppins on December 4, 1981 along with his twin brother, Derrick Charles Duppins. Darryl departed this life suddenly on June 11, 2006, to join his brother Marvin Duppins in heaven. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He graduated in June of 2001 from Southern High School and then went on to attend the Urban Youth Corps, where he graduated with high honors. He was a landscaper for Baltimore City and he was a hard worker who was very devoted to his job. Darryl had a fetish for hats. He wore one with every outfit. Darryl was a loving and caring friend to all who knew him. He was very dedicated to his family and friends, especially his two children, Akaya and Darryl Jr. They were his world. Darryl was a very happy person. Whenever you saw him, he was always smiling. He leaves to cherish fond memories: his loving parents, Mary and Charles Duppins; two children, Akaya and Darryl Jr.; three brothers, John, Telly and Derrick; four sisters, Pauline, Andrea, Jacquelyn and Anita; his dedicated friend, Sophia Watts; his grandparents, Celeste and Herbert Pope; his aunts, uncles, great aunts and great uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Wassup dad yo I never really got to talk to you as far as I can remember but not a day goes by that I wish I could. I was young when you died so I can't really say I knew what it was like when you were around so I really don't know what I'm missing, I just know a lot of other kids talk about their dads like they play an important part in their life and I can never relate for Almost 17 years without you, I taught myself what being a man is and yes it was hard I messed up a lot and put mommy through hell but I think I'm finally making her proud I'm about to graduate high school at 16. I didn't think I could do it at first I kept getting stuck in my head, I lost my best friend before I came and I don't think I'll ever be the same for. It's still hard but the thought of me finally making mommy proud after everything I put her through is what's really keeping me going. I met this girl too I think I love Shorty too I'm not going to lie, sometimes I forget everything I've been through when I'm with her It's like I'm in a whole other world, all the things from the past that hurt me just fades away like when I first met her after Grease died I didn't think about it like that when I was with her and its just something about her. I get on my knees every night and pray she really loves me and she is not like the girls I used to mess with. I started rapping to express myself too, I just get in this mode and like however I'm feeling at the moment I just use music to express myself it's way easier, I got a brand I'm working on too I want to start selling clothes. I haven't been home in 3 months I miss Mommy and Kaya and sister Mira. I'm missing all their birthdays in here, I can't wait to get back I got a month and a half left then I get to start the life I always wanted hopefully with Jada. I smoke too i don't know how you would feel about that but the same way Jada takes my pain away the smoking does too and I don't know it just makes me feel alive, I know I'm not dead but my mind just gets stuck in the past and somethings i just can't forget and even though those things made me the person that I am when I think about them it changes my mood to the mood I had in that moment if that makes sense. I'm not crazy I'm just heartbroken.... I wanna explain more but I have to go “ Today was his special day Till just a year ago he was taken away Only God knows the reason he called him home Leaving all of us missing him so. My brother Darryl was a special young man Who anyone who knew him could call him friend. His harsh demeanor was bristling and gruff You always knew how he felt, when he'd had enough. He'd let you know with his big booming voice To hear it once more would be such a joy. He loved his family, his coworkers his friends They knew his loyalty was good to the end. For no fair weather friend could he ever be called If he loved you and cared he could not be swayed at all For his love and his loyalty were always true He wore his feelings on his sleeves and he'd share them with you. He had a huge and jocular laugh, infectious too. If you laughed with him, he'd laugh with you For no one alive had a better sense of humour Made us all honored to call him our favorite brother. Now as the sun sets down gloriously this day. We know it's because of a brother Darryl anyway. He lives up in Heaven as he did here with us. Shining his smile upon us and all of his love. Wrapping us all in his big arms to his chest He is telling us all to keep doing our best. To keep making him proud in our thoughts and deeds And he will see us all when in Heaven we meet.

“ I am writing to send my deepest condolences to the family of Darryl E. Duppins. I did not know him at all yet I have experienced the lost of a loved one. In addition, I feel led to invite the survivors of Darryl to my church: Set the Captives Free. My church holds a bi-monthly bereavement ministry called Life after Loss. It helped me a great deal and I pray that you allow for it to assist you in such a time as this. May God Bless you all...###imported-begin###Angie###imported-end###

“ To the family of Darryl, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, especially when that one has lived for only a short period of time. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ It is Saturday evening and I just learned of Darryl's death from Linda and Tonas. I am sorry I was not able to be with your family for the services this morning. I first met Darryl when he was very young at the Burn Unit. He was always very special to me. When he was little, he was very brave, especially when I made him do all those awful exercises in P.T. It was my great pleasure to watch him grow into such a fine young man. I remember the first time he came to the Burn Camp, and all the good times that we shared there over the years. I can still see him wearing his white shirt and his cap, running down the mountain with his friends on the last day he was at the camp. What a great loss for all of us. My heart and prayers are with all Darryl's family and friends, and especially with you Mary. Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help in any way. Love, “ What's up Cuz. It was so hard to deal with your death, but with God's grace and Mercy we made it through. Pauline, John, Jackie, Erica, Sherdonna, and Myself, made sure that Mom and Pop were okay when it came to all of the business, we were with them everyday. I remember when you first came home from the burn unit at the hospital, I used to come over to Grandma Nita's and you used to be sitting right there waiting for me to rub your back because those burns itched really bad when they were healing. I was glad when your mom moved back in town from Cherry Hill because that gave us the bond that we have today as aunt and neice. I will miss you at our Birthday party that we have every year. You guys wanted to give it up, that was very important to me and I am glad you guys stuck by it. I will continue to have the party, and your name will still be on that cake. I have to go now, but you best to believe that I am going to be writing you again. I am going to introduce Sophia to this site so that she can keep in touch with you because she is having a time right now. RIP, Love always Your Cousin, Renee.##imported-begin##Renee##imported-end##

“ What's up cuz. Happy Belated Birthday. I was trying to get on this spot to wish you a happy birthday, but it was down during that time. The party went on as planned. At one point I did not want to have it; but I thought about it and said Darryl would not have wanted it to be this way, so we had it and we had a ball; your presence was surely missed, but I know you were there in spirit. Oh and your name was on the cake, and it will be as long as I have our annual party, your name will always be on the cake. RIP Missing your presence. If I get too busy before christmas, MERRY CHRISTMAS!!!###imported-begin##Renee###imported-end##

Hello Darryl just sitting here thinkng about you. i msses you so very much. i wonder how my life would be with you here with me. Duda has grown to be a big girl. well i know you have your attention on Akaya and Little Darryl so i won't hold you long. i just have something i want to share with you. To My Brother

© Jacquelyn

To my Brother:

*Words are hard to describe feelings,
I have always been better with images.
Yet writing down how much I miss you,
Seems to give me more tranquility.*

*Writing to let go, to give this all a place.
It will never heal, it will never go away,
But just learning to give it time and space.*

*I can tell you how much I care, how much I would give to have you back in my life,
But you know all of this and it won't change anything, that's what I am learning within time,*

*Writing to tell you how much I have learned, to show you that through fragility I become a stronger person
More able to understand, more able to listen and to care,
Hurt through loss, I've become yet a wiser person*
