

Darryl E. Logan

March 2, 1960 - December 12, 2008

DARRYL EMERSON LOGAN was born on March 2, 1960 to Laura M. Logan and the late Ernest Logan. He left us for his Heavenly Reward on December 12, 2008. He leaves to rejoice in his life: his devoted mother, Laura M. Logan; his loving sister, Joyce S. Dent-Shuler; his brothers, Marshall Logan and David; and the love of his life, his fiancée, Toni Jackson. Darryl was an avid student of life. His thirst for knowledge was encouraged at his alma mater, the Friends School, where he graduated in 1978. He later attended the University of Maryland, College Park. Darryl was a voracious reader. Though he would read most books, magazines and periodicals, he was especially intrigued by histories of the world and historical novels. He loved conversations with people who had a differing point of view and was a skillful debater. Darryl was instilled with a strong work ethic, especially from his mother. He worked for KLN Management as a Leasing Administration Clerk. He was a loving son and brother, who was lovingly spoiled by his mother and sister. Family was important to Darryl. His love and presence will be missed by: his beloved nephew, Lamont Nicholson and adoring niece, Tonya Baker; aunts, Barbara Ann Lloyd, Beverly C. St. Rose, Nancy L. Sterrette and Judith M. St. Rose; and grandfather, Leon St. Rose. He also leaves five great-nieces and five great-nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so truly sorry that you lost your loved one in death. When death hits us it really hurts like nothing else, and we sometimes wonder, why my family has to go through this? People the world over ask this same question, because God never intended for us to die. Sickness and death was never his purpose, and death came to us only because of the sin of Adam, which he passed down to us. Romans 5:12. Lovingly, our heavenly father took steps to undo the effects of sin, by sending his beloved son, Jesus to pay the ransom price with his precious life so that we could once again have the opportunity for everlasting life. John 3:16. The bible tells us at 1st Cor 15:22, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." One day, rest assured, Darryl will come to life, because John 5:28,29 lovingly promises that the dead will hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. I would like to share with you some more wonderful scriptures concerning Jehovah's wonderful purpose, so please contact me at my e-mail address at your convenience. May your precious memories of Darryl bring thoughts of happier days to your hearts, and may you recieve much comfort from our loving, heavenly father.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us that "there is going to be a resurrection". When that future time occurs there will be no more death, pain, sickness or sorrow.-Revelation 21:3-5 May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##
