“ Darryl, my little brother, I can't express how much I miss and going to miss him when we talked there was always something to laugh about we never ran out of words I miss the phone ringing and calling and being at the family gatherings but God makes no mistakes and I know he has his crown and wearing it proudly like the man that he was. Love you little brother (PeeWee) kiss my mother for me whom I can't express how much I miss her and I'll see you on the other side for sure. Your big sister JACKIE ❤️❤️

“ Darryl whom I always knew as "Light Bulb" was such a respectable, caring young man.
He was given the right nick name "Light Bulb" for truly his smile would light up the darkness day. God has gained a great angel.
Sending prayers of comfort to his family.

“ Darryl was one of my mom and dad's grandsons. He was my sister's youngest son. When he was young the family gave him the nickname "Pee Wee." In my eyes Darryl grew up to be a great man. His love for his family (Burrell & Redding). Not to mention his being a loving husband to and father to his son, "little Darryl." He always respected the elderly by using those rare words; "yes sir" and "yes mam." As someone has already stated, Darryl was a gentleman, at least until he got together with his cousins, then it was anything goes and only the strong will survive. He and his cousins had a special bond, they had to the way they talked about one another, all in love of course (smile). These are just a few thoughts as I think about my nephew.

One final thought is this. God does not make mistakes and whatever he does is right whether we understand it or not. God gave us life and he is the only One who has the right to take it. He does that in his own time and way, not ours. The main thing is to be ready. Make sure you know Christ, because he is the only way to the Father. Trust and believe in him, not your own works!
