

Darvette R. Ross

June 23, 1966 - January 17, 2017

The sun rose for Darvette Rondhia Ross on June 23, 1966 in Baltimore, Maryland. Her parents were Rondhia Bell Ross and Darvin Ross, Jr.

Darvette was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Carver Vocational Technical High School, after studying cosmetology as her trade. She worked several years as a cosmetologist and later as a certified nursing assistant at Future Care in Sandtown.

Darvette accepted Christ at an early age as a member of Mount Calvary Baptist Church, where her grandmother, Gladys Faircloth was a minister. She later joined Victorious Faith in God Ministries serving as a soloist and member of the Praise and Worship team.

Darvette was the proud mother of two beautiful daughters, Danniecia Hudson, born on December 11, 1987 and Darneice Ross, born on December 2, 1988.

Darvette will be mostly remembered for her outgoing personality. She made friends everywhere she traveled. She had a vivid sense of humor, loved telling jokes and making others laugh. She saw herself as a local celebrity and could often be found singing at local karaoke establishments. She could always be counted on to sing a solo at church or any other family gathering.

Her mother, Rondhia Ross; father,, Darvin Ross, Jr., grandmother, Gladys Faircloth; special cousin, Mattie Yvonne James; and first love Robert Larry Hudson, preceded in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving and devoted daughters, Danniecia and Darneice; granddaughters, DeAnna and Deairah; aunts, Rosa Mae, Rose, Dot and Sally; cousin-sisters, Lainey, Michelle, Taundra and Penny, godbrother, Charles, step-siblings, special friends, Shelly, Carol, Vanessa, Marie and Spencer; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
