

Daryl L. Johnson

August 25, 1956 - January 18, 2021

Daryl Lloyd Johnson was born on August 25, 1956 in Baltimore, MD. Daryl departed this life on January 18, 2021 due to a lengthy illness at home. Daryl was preceded in death by his parents, Annie Mae Johnson and Johnny Smallwood, two brothers; Richard and Henry Johnson and one sister; Better Donaldson.

Daryl was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He had various long tenured jobs at Kaufman's, Browns Furniture where he held many positions and finally retired from Social Security Administration.

Daryl was a man of excitement, music and style. He enjoyed having a genuine good time, with the people he loved most. Anyone who loved Daryl understood his appreciation of music. Daryl's first choice in music was jazz. From Anthony Hamilton to Snoop Dogg, his vast selections had no end. Much like his taste in sound, Daryl's style was one of a kind! His timeless collection of hats, watches and clean-cut suits could fit any occasion. Over the years Daryl enjoyed bowling, which he starred on many teams and was outstanding. Daryl was a pillar of truth, wisdom and love. He believed in the Lord and his faith never wavered. Even in his sickness, Daryl continued to help anyone in need. Many of his remaining suits and clothing will be donated to The Salvation Army.

As a brother, father, grandfather and family man, he loved all as his own. His jokes, words of encouragement and tough love branded him to be the man we all have grown to learn and love. He loved his life to the fullest but loved his family even more. Daryl Lloyd Johnson was loved by many and will forever be missed.

He leaves his seven sisters, Jean Maith, Peggy Settles, Barbara Gillespie, Sharon Johnson and his twin sister Debra Johnson and his sister-in-law Loretta Johnson. His daughter, Danielle Austin and his loving son, Montice Rowlette and his wife Karen Rowlette. Seven grandchildren, DeJanira Ford, Makira Ford, Dachille Austin, Kamau Austin, Phoenix Rowlette, Laila Rowlette and Gelaiah Holt. Special nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews whom he loved greatly and a host of other family and friends.

“ I wish Mr. Daryl's family all the sympathy in the world, you have lost a great man and I am so glad he came into my life. He made me laugh on some days when there wasn't nothing to laugh about. I kept in contact with him even when he moved from Everall Gardens. I love you as my dear friend and I will miss you every day. I will see you again one day.
