

Daryl Oneil Foster

April 28, 1997 - March 26, 2009

Daryl Oneil Foster, Jr. born April 28, 1997 at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore City, the son of Darlena Brooks and the late Daryl Oneil Foster, Sr., received his calling and went home to be with the Lord after putting up a courageous fight for 10 days on March 26, 2009 at 9:30pm. Daryl attended Sharp-Leadenhall Elementary School and was presently in the 5th grade. "Man-Man" as he was affectionately called by those who loved and knew him, needed no company to keep himself occupied. He enjoyed riding bikes, listening to music and annoying his older sister, often reminding her that she was only 10 months older than him. He would tell her that at one point in the year, they were gonna be the same age. To celebrate his life and legacy Man-Man leaves behind his loving mother, Ms Darlena M. Brooks; one brother, Markey Ellis; a loving sister, Dominique Foster; two uncles, Mr. Darnett Wilson and Mr. Pedro Rollings; one great-great grandmother, two great-great aunts, two special uncles/mentors, Mr. Damon Garris, Sr. and Mr. James Williams. A special group of friends and extended family on Wayne Avenue.

Tribute Wall

“ Daryl Oneil Foster

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I am so very sorry to read about the tragic loss of your precious little one. When such things happen it seems so unfair to the family. Death truly is unfair, and God views it as our worst enemy. He promises in his word that soon he will destroy this enemy that causes us so much grief. 1st Cor 15:26, Isaiah 25:8. He also promises that he will bring our loved ones back to life by means of a ressurection. Only Jehovah knows the ways out from death, according to Psalm 68:20, and he has given his beloved Son, Jesus, all authority to ressurect the dead, according to John 5:25-29. If we are faithful he promises us that we will be reunited with our loved ones again, and he gives us many accounts in the bible of how Jesus brought many back to life. A very touching account if found at Mark 5:38-43 where Jesus ressurected a little 12-year old girl. As you reflect on the holy scriptures, may they bring you much comfort and a hope to cling to; and may your cherished memories of Darryl be a wonderful source of comfort to you as well as you await the time when you can hold him in your arms once again. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address so that I can share God's wonderful purpose with you. Contact me anytime.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Daryl, May God hold you in his arms and give you peace. You will be missed. Mr. Dillon 2nd Grade Teacher Calvin Rodwell Elementray School##imported-begin##Mr. Dillon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My heart and prayers go out to this family. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal. May God bless each of you.##imported-begin##Maurisha White##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Daryl is one student that I will never forget. May he rest in peace...##imported-begin##L. Horn##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ The news of the accident brought tears to my eyes and even still I try not to think of his death...just a baby to go in a horrible way...My heart and prayers goes out to the family doing this time...just be strong and believe in the Lord Almighty...he's here to help you through this sadden time...trust he's free of pain and in the arms of the Lord.##imported-begin##Joanne Gray - Columbia MD##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Bless you baby. May you rest in peace. When I heard the newscaster say you were doing better, I rejoiced. But God had a better plan for you. He has placed you in a better place. Bless your family. May God sustain you now and forever. Love, Karen Your Sister in Christ##imported-begin##Karen Collins##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM