

DaShawn Isaiah Satchell

April 16, 1995 - June 27, 2012

DaShawn Satchell, son of David Satchell, Sr., the late Vernetta Louden and the late Tara Coates (surrogate mother), was born on April 16, 1995 in Baltimore, Maryland. On June 27, 2012, our beloved DaShawn was called home to heaven to sit amongst the angels.

DaShawn was to enter into his senior year this fall at Baltimore Community High School, where he was determined to follow his own path of creativity.

DaShawn or "Ock," as he was affectionately called by his Muslim brothers, could be found every Friday at the Mosque for Jumar Services. DaShawn was in transition study for the Nation of Islam.

DaShawn made numerous friends wherever he went and was quick to melt your heart with his smile. His love of R&B music made him an avid singer, no matter who was listening. DaShawn's love of basketball, dirt bikes, food, texting and of course Facebook could never supercede his greatest love of family.

DaShawn put his family first and foremost at all times. He was always a devoted and true friend to all that were blessed to share in his life. DaShawn was a better son, brother and friend than we sometimes deserved. He was loved by all and will be sincerely missed.

DaShawn leaves to mourn his absence: his father, David Satchell, Sr.; four sisters, Keisha Satchell, Shameka Chambers, Dakera Shields and Tijeia Benbow; five brothers, David Satchell, Jr., Daquan Shields, Raquan Louden, Janard Benbow and Isaiah Satchell; six nieces, Janiya, Raniya, Kendra, Mercedes, London, and Paris; four nephews, Raquan, Fabolous, Donte and Maurice; two devoted friends, Maneria and Puffy; a host of other relatives and friends too great to name.

“ *I Miss You,
You not being here seems so unreal, memories of Me, You and Missy Laughing on the Blvd Is Sometimes the only thing that keeps me from crying. i hope you know how much you are loved and truly missed !
I wish i could go back to the times you would sing "trey songz (she aint my girl)" Getting on my nerves ;) I LOVE YOU GROWNFACE*

*love, chanae

“ Dear family and friends of Mr. Satchell, please accept my deepest sympathy for your great loss. During difficult times such as these it's sometimes hard to find the right words to say. You want to comfort the family, but don't want to make them feel worse than they already do. I find though that God's Word, the Bible is always comforting. For it is designed to give us hope no matter what we are going through. One such scripture is found at Isaiah 26:19. It says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." Imagine seeing those death has taken from us again. Soon your tears of pain will be turned into tears of joy. Please take care.
