“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I'm so very sorry to hear of your recent loss of your loved one. Truly death is very hard to come to grips with, and we miss out loved one so very much when they pass on. This was not God's purpose for people to die, and he promises in the scriptures to put an end to sickness and death in the very near future. Isaiah 33:24, Isaiah 25,8. One day this world as we know it will be gone, because Jehovah will usher in a time of peace that the world has never seen before. Micah 4,4 speaks about this when it says, "And they will actually sit, each one under his vine and under his fig tree, and there will be no one making them tremble." ; for the very mouth of Jehovah of armies has spoken it." Even the memory of this tragic life will be forgotten, because Isaiah 65:17 says, "For here i am creating new heaven and a new earth; and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." As for the dead, they will one day hear the voice of the son of God, Jesus; and they will come out of those memorial tombs back to life everlasting. Please contact me on my E-mail so I can share more of God's promises with you. Take care.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Smith. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##
