

David Alan Burton

June 16, 1944 - January 5, 2010

DAVID A. BURTON SR., son of the late James R. Burton, Sr. and Rose E. Burton, was born on June 16, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this world suddenly on January 5, 2010. David attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Dunbar High School in 1962. He enlisted in the U.S. Army and served a tour in the Dominican Republic and Vietnam. In 1963 he married Johnnie Mae Gill; from that union were three sons; David A. Burton Jr., Michael Burton and Barry Burton. In 1973 he married Brenda Chappel, and from that union is a daughter Domenica Burton. David worked for General Motors for several years and later worked for catholic Charities (Josephites Ministry). He accepted the Lord at an early age and was baptized at St. mark Church in Virginia. David was a fun-loving person. He loved big hats and suits. He loved old music and cherished his collection of oldies. David would always say to his brother and sisters that "He" was the best looking child James and Rose had. He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Rose Burton; five children, David Burton Jr. (deceased), Michael Burton, Barry Burton, Domenica Burton and stepdaughter Valarie Jones; four grandchildren, Tameka, Danielle, Christopher and Erin; six brothers, Kenneth Chester, Barry Burton (deceased), James Burton Jr., Ralph Chester (deceased) Wallace Chester (deceased) and Dennis Burton (deceased); five sister, Joyce Burton (deceased), Gloria Burton, Linda Lomax, Betty Parker and Wanda McRae; a devoted ex-wife, Brenda Burton; best friend, Willie McRae; two goddaughters, Mia and Michelle; an aunt and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never a part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ *I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of David Alan Burton. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to express my sympathy to the Burton family. The loss of a loved one may lead to deep sorrow, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the hope of a resurrection by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
