

David Antwon Deans

May 16, 1984 - August 20, 2009

On Wednesday August 20, 2009, DAVID responded to the sound of heavenly bells and transitioned from time in this earthly realm to eternity, the heavenly realm. David was born May 16, 1984 to parents Sandra Bynum of Baltimore, Maryland and Willie Winfield of Rocky Mount, North Carolina. During his years with us, God blessed David with two children, Diamine and Quentin. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He also attended Job Corps where he received his masonry certification. David worked in various positions, all of which highlighted his ability to work with and understand people. David accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He was an avid sports fan who enjoyed playing football, baseball and many hours of card playing. David loved people and spending time with his family. He would lighten a room with his personality and his smile by telling stories and silly jokes about his family and friends. David was, and still is, a much-loved person by all who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory and to celebrate his life: his mother, Sandra Bynum; his daughter, Diamine Deans and son, Quentin Parker; his sister, Shi Collins; his brother, Levalya Deans; an extremely beloved aunt, Sharon Deans, and grandmother, Annie Deans; three nieces, five nephews and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear family, I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one. Death is so hard to deal with; especially when someone dies so young as your David was. May the peace of Jehovah God be with you, and rest assured that David will come to life again in the promised ressurection. John 5:28,29 tells us: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." May you be comforted and sustained by this wonderful promise of life.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Death is never easy to cope with especially when it overtakes someone so young. May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and the promise that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29).##imported-begin##C. “ I am so sorry for your loss. May Jehovah God continue to comfort you in your time of need. We look forward to fulfillment of Revelation 21:4-"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."##imported-begin##D. Matthews##imported-end##
