

David Avon Howard

December 6, 1945 - February 8, 2002

David A. Howard devoted son of Mary R. Howard was born on December 6, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 8, 2002 after a brief illness. David received his spiritual education at St. Phillips Lutheran Church where he was confirmed. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. Howard then served in the United States Navy for four years. His love of numbers led him to a career as an accountant after leaving the service. He loved baseball and played on a community team the Y-Eagles. His love of music lead him to help manage a local band called the Destiny Band and Singers. Howard later moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where his outgoing personality allowed him to quickly make new friends. Howard was blessed with one beautiful daughter, Jennifer Howard. David, affectionately known as “Cowboy” to some, also loved cooking and spent his last years as a mixologist and caterer. Everyone loved his homemade specialties such as his holiday cookies and his grilled delights at the summer family reunions. After prayer at our winter reunion, Howard asked that we forgive those that terrorized our country on September 11, 2002. He also passed out flyers inviting the homeless to Thanksgiving dinner at his home. For many years David has been loved as well as emotionally and spiritually supported by his special friend Margaret Jones. He leaves to cherish his life: his daughter, Jennifer Howard; his mother, Mary R. Howard, five sister, Clarice E. Farmer, Latifa Apugo, Teressa Y. Wilson, M. Lynn Barbour and Vanessa M. Howard; a special cousin, Frances Johnson; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.
