

David Awkward

July 7, 1951 - November 12, 2002

David Awkward, son of Aurelia Awkward and the late Theodore Awkward was born on July 7, 1951 in Anne Arundel county, Maryland. He entered into eternal rest on November 12, 2002. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He worked as a roofer for over thirty years. David enjoyed helping everyone; no job too big or too small, handy man was there. He also loved photography. He accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior at an early age. David joined the Garden of Prayer Baptist Church in September 15, 1999. He married the former Yvette Doles on August 11, 1990. Out of this union one daughter was born India Tamar Awkward. He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Yvette Awkward; two daughters, India and Tia; three sons, David, Dana and Davon a loving mother, Aurelia Awkward; one mother-in-law, Christine Deves; three sisters, Martha, Brenda and Karen; three brothers, Stanley, Terry and Gary; three sisters-in-law, two uncles, three aunts, and a host of other relatives and friends. Two brothers, Theodore and Keith Awkward preceded him in death. Tribute When counting our blessings, we always begin at the start with our father, our friend. We think of our closeness and the good times and then we thank God for a father like you! Love always, Your Sons and Daughters

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
