“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ *I send my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family of David. One day God promises that we will see our loved ones again, because it is his purpose to ressurect them back from the dead. Daniel 12,2 promises that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Imagine seeing David alive again, won't that be a wonderful thing to behold? Yet if we are faithful and obedient to our loving heavenly father, we will have the wonderful promise of being reunited with our loved ones again. May you be comforted by this wonderful hope.
