

David F. Smith

January 20, 1938 - April 27, 2002

David Franklin Smith, son of the late Sophia Carter and James Smith was born on January 20, 1938 in Weldon, North Carolina. He departed this life on April 27, 2002 at Mercy Medical Center after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Weldon, North Carolina public school system. As a young man he moved to Baltimore, MD where he was employed with Ben Gramham & Co., and also Mayflower Movers as a truck driver for 20 years until his health failed him. On February 19, 2000 God brought two hearts together as one and Mr. David Smith and Helen Rose were united in matrimony and shared a life of devotion love and happiness together. He also had numerous friends and relatives with whom he shared his kindness and caring. He will be dearly missed by all. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Helen Smith, one daughter, Gloria Williams of North Carolina; two stepdaughters, Onaka and Tanaka Rose; one stepson, Marvin (Yvonne) Rose; one sister, Margo Williams of Baltimore; three brothers, Harry Smith of Baltimore, Henry and Johnny Matthews of North Carolina; six aunts, mother-in-law, Mrs. Ella Mae Rose; and the late Mr. Linton Rose who proceeded him in death; five brothers-in-law, Bobby Fletcher, Willie, Frank and Gwendolyn Rose, Randy and Darlene of Baltimore and Edward Rose of South Carolina, six sisters-in-law, Ella (Pearlie) of Baltimore, Rosa, Bessie, Mary, Patricia, and Angela of Dillion, SC., five grandchildren, Andrienne Williams of North Carolina, Shiqiuta Scott, Shakeea Harris, Chance Little, and Deshawn Hammond. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, as well as relatives and friends.
