

David Gill

February 4, 1942 - November 2, 2001

David Gill was born on February 4, 1942 to the late Lillian Hood Gill and Roland Gill. He departed this life suddenly on November 2, 2001 at the Doctors Hospital in Prince George's County, Maryland. Known to most as "Uncle Dub," he accepted Christ at an early age. In 1951 he was baptized at the Long-Branch Baptist Church in Grover, North Carolina. Also born in Grover, North Carolina, Uncle Dub received his education in the Grover public school system. He later moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where he was employed by the Rich Estate management company of Northern Village Apartments and Town Homes for the last twenty-three years. David brought joy to everyone's life that he touched. He enjoyed listening to his oldies but goodies very much. He leaves to cherish his memory: four sisters, Lilly Mae and Elizabeth both of Baltimore, Md., Lunell of N.C. and Mary of New York; four brothers, Roland Jr., Willy Gene and Paul all of N.C. and Mack of Baltimore, Md. (three brothers preceded him in death, Herman, Haywood and James); two aunts, one great-aunt, twenty-six nieces, twenty-one nephews, thirty-two great-nieces, and forty great-nephews; three god children, Pamela, Tyrone and Faith; two special nephews, Buddy and Rick (he considered them as his sons); a host of other relatives and friends.
