

David Goodman

August 18, 1953 - April 18, 2009

BISHOP DAVID GOODMAN, son of the late Charles and Claudine Goodman, was born on August 18, 1953. Bishop (as he was called by family and friends) received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. Soon after graduation he met and married the former Marion Sample, and out of this union five beautiful children were born. Bishop attended Bible College and became an ordained minister in the early 1980s and founded Wings of Faith Ministries in 1988. The congregation grew over the years with many covenant partners and faithful members. On January 22, 1993, Bishop married Helena Poindexter. The two of them were inseparable. Being avid sports fans, allowed them to enjoy many times together watching wrestling, football and boxing. Bishop was a very good cook and enjoyed sharing space in the kitchen with his wife. Bishop was a man of faith. His wisdom and revelation knowledge of God's word defined him. His love for people kept him in the face of God for direction and counsel. Bishop challenged the people of God to take God at his word without wavering. Best known for his sense of humor, Bishop could have anyone laughing, even in the darkest of hours, he lived to the fullest. His smile and personality would light up the room. Holiday with his wife, family and friends were always filled with love and laughter. Bishop leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Helena Poindexter Goodman; two brothers, Walter Robinson and Donald Goodman; four sons, David Goodman, Brandon Goodman, Bryant Poindexter and Bruce Poindexter; five daughters, Quarnoda Sellers, Davinia Goodman, Christyna

Goodman, Lasharnia Goodman and Theresa Shields; two brothers-in-law, Edward Brown and Percy Poindexter; four sisters-in-law, Paula Goodman, Carol Goodman, Shirley Brown and Stella Gant; special grandchildren, Devon Goodman, Meshawn Holland, Latanya Smiley and Bianca Poindexter; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ David Goodman

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to a time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May you find solace in the God of comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My sincere condolences to family and friends of Mr. David Goodman. Lean on the God of comfort Jehovah. He is near to those broken at Heart (Ps.34:18).##imported-begin##Bernetta Dixon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Job 14:14 asks- "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? Job 14:15 answers- "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of you your hands you will have a yearning". This lovingly informs us that Jehovah God "yearns", strongly desires to raise our dead loved ones from the dead to life. More importantly, it reveals that he will do so. May you receive much comfort from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM