“ *Uncle Dave,
You were the most important man in our lives.
You were not only our Uncle but also served as a surrogate Father. You exposed us to many of the joys of life and experiences. We were able to spend a month each summer with you, Aunt Elma and family. You showed us how to water ski, swim and learned to enjoy your favorite pastime, baseball. Thank you for being the 'gift' God placed in our lives. You continued to shower us with your unconditional love. For that, we say, Thank you! We love you eternally and miss you. We know we will see you again in Heaven.
You are healed and no longer in pain.
Love eternally,
Skip, Cheryl and Sheila*

“ Daddy you will be greatly missed in person but you will always have a special place in my heart. Thank you for the talks and fatherly advice you gave me even though I was your daughter in law you always made me feel like a natural daughter to you in the family. You are no longer in pain and I know you are rejoicing with your other loved ones and friends in heaven. RIH David V. Green
