

David Frederick Harden Sr.

December 23, 1957 - March 8, 2026

With heavy hearts, we share the passing of David F. Harden Sr., who entered eternal rest on March 8, 2026, surrounded by the love of his family. He was 68 years old. A devoted husband and proud father, he lived a life marked by integrity, determination, and deep love for those entrusted to his care.

Born on December 23, 1957, in Richmond, Virginia, David was the beloved son of Mamie L. and John F. Harden. An alumnus of Thomas Jefferson High School, he carried with him values of hard work, creativity, and compassion. He went on to build a life centered on faith, family, and service.

To know David was to know a man who loved his family deeply. He found great meaning in caring for his family and took pride in the life they built together. David was the kind of father who led by example—through patience, sacrifice, encouragement, and unwavering support. His family was the center of his world, and he took great joy in providing for them, guiding them, and celebrating their milestones both great and small. Whether offering advice, lending a helping hand, or simply being present, he showed his love in ways that will never be forgotten.

Though David worked hard, always putting his family first, he also loved cooking, fishing, connecting with loved ones, adventuring out on his motorcycle, birdwatching, and singing, but he especially adored attending events that featured his children. His wisdom, easy humor, and uplifting spirit will be missed beyond words, but remembered with enduring gratitude and love.

David is survived by his beloved wife of 30 years, Melody Saunders; their children, David Jr., Christian, and Elizabeth (Michael Petrino); and many extended family members and dear friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mamie L. Harden and John F. Harden; and his brother, Boyd J. Harden.
