“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I wish to send my heartfelt condolences to the family. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection which will restore life to our loved ones who have died. At John 11:25 Jesus makes this promise: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. Jesus resurrected many people while he was here on earth, including Lazarus and a 12-year old little girl. Can you imagine how her parents felt when their daughter came to life again? Mark 5:38-43 One day, if we have faith and are obedient to our loving heavenly father, we will have the same joy of seeing our loved ones again. May these wonderful promises from Jehovah God be a strengthening aid to you in the days ahead.###imported-begin##Rita Johnson###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 rightly informs us that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". There is much hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the Bible's wonderful hope for dead loved ones.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy is extended to your family and friends, there are no words of sympathy that will ease the pain of losing someone you love, I hope that it bring you some comfort to know that others care, let the memories of your loved one help you to heal, in time the memories will come without the pain. Revelation 21:4 assures us that soon there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##
