

David J. Scott

November 18, 1956 - December 28, 2006

David Jerome Scott, son of Fannie Scott-Streat and the late Prue D. Scott, was born on November 18, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. On December 28, 2006, David got his wings and took his celestial flight to glory. David was affectionately known by his family as “Clean” and “Uncle D.” He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At a young age, David accepted the Lord and was baptized at the Pleasant Zion Baptist Church, Baltimore County. From his youth he loved music and big trucks. His love for music lead him to playing the bass guitar for the “Five Stars Gospel Singers” of Baltimore, Maryland. His love for big trucks lead him to being owner operator of his own tractor trailers. David would work around those trucks day and night. He carried on the legacy of his father. David married his childhood sweetheart, Theresa Seivers (Peachie) and born from this union was one son, Divade. He was a strong, hard working, no nonsense kind of person, who loved his family very much, especially his wife, son and grandchildren, Lil Divade and Maya. Not only did he provide for them but anyone who needed something, he would go out of his way to lend a helping hand. Uncle “D” as he was known by many especially his nieces and nephews loved him very much and he loved them too. David knew the Lord and loved listening to his gospel music. Up and down the highway he’d listen to his favorite group, The Canton Spirituals. His favorite hymn was “The Old Rugged Cross.” David was a soldier and fought his fight until the very end. He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Theresa Scott; son, Divade Z. Scott; two grandchildren, Divade Z. Scott, II and Maya K. Scott; mother, Fannie Scott-Streat; stepfather, Carlie Streat; brother, Thomas Scott; two sisters, Deborah Scott and JoAnn Scott; four sisters-in-law, Thelma Scott, Diane Wynn, Loretta Eggleston and Karen Seivers; four brothers-in-law, Stanley Seivers, Kenneth Seivers, David Wynn and Jerome Eggleston; godchild, Kezley Lighty; eight aunts, three uncles, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. David may be out of our sight, but never, will he be out of our hearts.

“ Hello ! Scott's ! I would like to send my condolences to you all, the family & friends. It will soon be a year since death broke the circle of life in your lives. Our heavenly father knows how you all are fairing these days and is there to keep giving comfort to all in all tribulation as 2 Cor. 1:3 says. Many wonder is death really the end. The bible say NO. Imagine the happiness we will enjoy when the dead loved ones are resurrected as John 5:28 say. I am looking forward to that happening. May all the happy times and memories of David help to heal the effect of death. My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
