

David Kenneth Wilkins

February 14, 1935 - May 3, 2002

David K. Wilkins, son of the late Bertha Barco, was born on February 14, 1935 in Elizabeth City, North Carolina. He departed this life on May 3, 2002, after a lengthy illness. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Douglass High School. He then went into the United States Army in 1951-1954, and was honorably discharged. He married the former Nancy Carey, and out of this union came a son, David B. Wilkins. He worked at Haberson & Walker Brick Factory and the Baltimore City Sanitation Department for several years. Then, in October of 1969, he went to work for General Motors, stayed there for thirty-three years, and retired. David or "Suge" (as his friends called him) made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by all that knew him. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Nancy C. Wilkins; one son, David B. Wilkins; one daughter-in-law, Chanda R. Wilkins; one sister, Annie McClary; two brothers, Melvin Griffin and Theodore Wilkins; four grandchildren, David E. Wilkins, Cana M. Wilkins, Kerry C. Wilkins and Trinity A. Wilkins; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
