“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ I wish to send my warm and heartfelt condolences. When we lose a loved one in death we often wonder why did this have to happen to my family? Sometimes it feels like an unreality when we contemplate the fact that our loved one is no longer here to enjoy life with us any longer. This was not Jehovah's purpose for us, because he is the source of all life, and he hates death. When we grieve for our loved ones, his heart grieves for us, because 1st John 4:8 tells us that "God is love"! He showed us his love in the most amazing way possible, by giving us his most beloved son, Christ Jesus to die for us so that you and I could live. How many of us would be willing to sacrifice one of our precious children? Yet notice what the bible says about what Jehovah did. Romans 5:6-8 says: "For indeed, Christ, while we were yet weak, died for ungodly men at the appointed time. "For hardly will anyone die for a righteous man; indeed, for the good man, perhaps, someone even dares to die, but God recommends his own love to us in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." I'm sure you'll agree, no greater love has ever been shown. Christ's death for us was so significant, because he paid the ransom price to buy back what Adam lost for us; that is, everlasting life. 1st Cor 15:22 reminds us: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive." A great day of salvation is soon to come, and all those sleeping in death will be resurrected, acts 24:15, John 5:28,29. Please be comforted by this hope, because by means of God's love your loved one will live once again.##imported-begin##R
