“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John 5:28-29, Psalm 37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family of David. May our heavenly father comfort you for your loss. Please keep this scripture in mind whenever the pain gets too hard to bear found at Isaiah 66:13 which says: "like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." So we are never alone. Jehovah God and his son, Jesus are always there for us to give us that strength that we need to endure. May the wonderful hope of the resurrection help to heal you in the days ahead. John 5:28,29###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##

“ Hi, my name is Evonne Williams. I was reading the obituary of your loved one and wanted to express my condolences. Losing a loved one in death is one of the most difficult of life's challenges. Since it was not God's purpose for obedient mankind to die, it is even more difficult to deal with. Even Jesus wept over his friend Lazarus before he restored his life. So of course, we miss our loved one, their mannerisms or certain expressions they used. One thing for certain is the promise at John 5:28,29 "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". The Bible promises a Resurrection of our dead loved ones. I found this to be of comfort to me and I hope you do as well. May the God of comfort be with your family. Sincerely, Evonne Williams###imported-begin##Evonne Williams###imported-end##
