

David L. Scott

April 3, 1925 - December 16, 2004

David Lee Scott departed this life on December 16, 2004 after a long illness. He was born on April 3, 1925 in Charlotte County, Virginia to the late Mary Francis and Herbert W. Scott. Coming from a large family of ten children, he was the youngest of three brothers, two who preceded him in death (Walter and Whitfield Scott) and five sisters who preceded him in death (Betty, Maureen, Gertrude, Sarah and Pauline). He received his education at the St. Douglas School. He was also a member of the St. Douglas Baptist Church. He left home at a very early age to join the United States Navy where he served his country for twenty-one years, retiring in 1963. "Lee" as most people who knew him well called him, was always a hard worker. He worked numerous jobs. He worked at the U.S. Postal Service, several bus companies, Sears & Roebuck and Johns Hopkins Hospital, from which he retired in 1995. He joined the John Wesley United Methodist Church, under the Pastorate of Reverend Calvin B. Crosson and had remained a faithful member. He drove the church bus for many years and also helped out in the soup kitchen. On June 16, 2002, he was honored on Father's Day for his dedicated services to the church. His greatest joy was driving down to Virginia every opportunity he got to see his family. He leaves to cherish his memory: a loving and devoted wife of forty-one years, Rosalee Johnson Scott; two sisters, Emma Edmonds of Charlotte County, VA and Hattie Hill of Richmond, VA; nieces, Phyllis Baker, Patsy Scott, Artie Williams, Robinette Jeter, Alvina Burton, Terry Hill, Francis Calvin, Claudia Scott, and Ameta, all of Virginia and Verdell Davis, Margaret

Rose Pickett and Sis of Baltimore, MD. He also leaves: nephews, Chelsea Morton (wife, Dianne), Buster and Joseph Scott of Baltimore, MD, and James Edmonds (wife, Linda) of Richmond, VA; brothers-in-law, Flood Edmonds of Charlotte County, VA, Virginia and Charles Johnson of Baltimore, MD; mother-in-law, Dorothy J. Johnson of Baltimore, MD; sisters-in-law, Gertrude Brooks, Laura Claiborne, Elaine Hubbard, all of Baltimore, MD, and Barbara Scott of Richmond, VA; a host of great-nieces and -nephews, family and friends.

“ To the Family: Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you all find comfort from Jehovah God the Father of tender mercies and the God of comfort..", who promises that soon there will be a resurrection of those who went asleep in death. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 and John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##gbowers##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. However the bible gives us the needed strength to cope. At John 5:28,29 it assures us that "The hour is coming in which all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Continue to draw strength from the scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
