“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Hi ! Cook's ! May I take this opportunity to express my condolences to u all, the family and friends. I see recently you all had the family circle broken by death. David was almost 55 years old. We long for the time when no one will ever die again as the bible says at Rev.21:3-5 , Tears, Pain, Death will be no more. I look forward to that time and I know you all do too. Our heavenly father as our comforter is there to help you all in all your tribulation as 2 Cor.1:3 say. May you all be surrounded by the supportive hearts of so many who care for you all during this time in your lives. I send my fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. Death is truly devastating, and it brings so much pain to our lives. May the God of all comfort sustain you during this time, and give you the strength to cope. 2ndCor.1:3,4 One day there will be no more sickness or death, because God promises to wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. Rev 21,4 May the promise of the resurrection bring joy to your hearts, and help you to deal with your grief.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
